Information Concerning the "Notice of Use" Requirements

NOTE.—Filing a notice of use on Form U is not a substitute for securing copyright protection. The notice of use is concerned with mechanical recording rights in musical compositions that have already been copyrighted. Form E, which may be obtained from the Copyright Office on request, should be used to secure copyright registration for a musical composition.

When to Use Form U. A notice of use on Form U should be filed by the owner of copyright in a musical composition when he has recorded his work, or licensed it for recording, on mechanical instruments such as phonograph records.

Statutory Provisions. The detailed notice of use provisions of the copyright statute may be found in sections 1(e) and 101(e) of Title 17, United States Code. The following is a general outline of the most important of these provisions.

Recording Rights. The copyright law gives the owner of copyright in a musical composition the exclusive right to make the first recording or reproduction of his composition on mechanical devices such as phonograph records, but only under certain conditions. Once the copyright owner has permitted the musical work to be recorded, any other person has a right to make recordings of the work.

—— This person may negotiate a recording contract with the copyright owner and record the composition under the terms specified in the agreement.

—— Or, he may use the "compulsory licensing" provisions of the law, which do not require him to get permission from the copyright owner.

The "Compulsory License." Under the "compulsory licensing" provisions of the copyright statute, any person may make recordings of a musical composition which the copyright owner has already recorded or licensed for recording, if he pays the copyright owner the royalty provided in the copyright statute and meets certain other requirements.

The Notice of Use. As soon as the copyright owner has recorded his musical work or licensed someone else to make the first recording, he should file a notice of use in the Copyright Office.

—— This notice of use is submitted on Form U and should be accompanied by the recording fee specified in the instructions on page 1.

—— The law provides that any failure to file such a notice shall be a complete defense to any suit, action, or proceeding for any infringement of the right to reproduce the musical composition mechanically.

Other Points to Remember:

—— The Copyright Office does not register claims to exclusive rights in mechanical recordings themselves or in the performances they reproduce. For this reason, phonograph records should not be sent to this office, and the notice of use should not contain any reference to the performance or the performers.

—— Recordings of readings of literary works, lectures, dramatic presentations, and the like, do not fall within the notice of use provisions of the statute.

—— Only copyrighted music should be listed in a notice of use. No purpose is served by including musical compositions that are not copyrighted.

—— Care should be taken that the information given on Form U is complete and accurate, since the Copyright Office does not undertake to check the stated facts.
