Information concerning renewal copyright

Two important points must be kept in mind with respect to renewal copyright: (1) there are strict time limits for securing it, and (2) it can be claimed only by certain specified persons named in the law.

Time limits

When to renew. The original term of copyright in a published work lasts for 28 years from the date of publication; in the case of a work originally registered in unpublished form, the copyright term lasts for 28 years from the date of registration in the Copyright Office. In either case, the copyright may be renewed for a second 28-year term only if a claim is registered in the Copyright Office within the last (28th) year of the original copyright term. For example, a work copyrighted on June 15, 1940, would be eligible for renewal between June 15, 1967, and June 15, 1968.

Caution: Unless a valid renewal claim and fee are received in the Copyright Office before the first copyright term expires, copyright protection is lost permanently and the work enters the public domain. The Copyright Office has no discretion to extend the renewal time limits.

How to register your claim

Procedure to follow. Complete an application for renewal registration on Form R and send it to the Register of Copyrights, Washington, D.C., 20540. The application should be accompanied by the registration fee of $2. Do not send copies of the work.

Who may claim renewal

Except in the case of five specific types of works, the law gives the right to claim renewal to the individual author of the work, regardless of who owned the copyright during the original term. If the author is deceased, the statute gives the right to claim renewal to certain of his statutory beneficiaries as explained below. The present owner (proprietor) of a copyright is entitled to claim renewal only in the five cases listed in Paragraph B, below.

A. The following persons may claim renewal in all types of works except those enumerated in Paragraph B, below:

1. The author, if living. State the claim as: the author.
2. The widow, widower, and/or children of the author, if the author is not living. State the claim as: the widow (widower) of the author ..... (Name of author) and/or the child (children) of the deceased author ..... (Name of author)
3. The author's executor(s), if the author left a will and if there is no surviving widow, widower, or child. State the claim as: the executor(s) of the author ..... (Name of author)
4. The next of kin of the author, if the author left no will and if there is no surviving widow, widower, or child. State the claim as: the next of kin of the deceased author ..... (Name of author) there being no will.

B. In the case of the following five types of works, the proprietor (owner of the copyright at the time of renewal registration) may claim renewal:

1. Posthumous work (work first published and copyrighted after the death of the author). State the claim as: proprietor of copyright in a posthumous work.
2. Periodical, cyclopedic, or other composite work. State the claim as: proprietor of copyright in a composite work.
3. "Work copyrighted by a corporate body otherwise than as assignee or licensee of the individual author." State the claim as: proprietor of copyright in a work copyrighted by a corporate body otherwise than as assignee or licensee of the individual author. (This type of claim is considered appropriate in relatively few cases.)
4. Work copyrighted by an employer for whom such work was made for hire. State the claim as: proprietor of copyright in a work made for hire.
5. Print or label originally registered in the Patent Office prior to July 1, 1940. State the claim as: proprietor of copyright in a print or label.
