AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

- 20 -

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged infringing conduct, to the extent it occurred, was performed by third parties, rather than Meta or a Meta employee acting within the course and scope of their employment, and is therefore not attributable to Meta under principles of agency law or respondeat superior.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent Plaintiffs seek excessive statutory damages that are so disproportionate to the alleged legal violations, they are barred by the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' remedies are barred by the applicable three-year statute of limitations (17 U.S.C. § 507) to the extent the claims are based on acts that occurred three or more years prior to the filing of this lawsuit of which Plaintiffs had notice or with reasonable diligence should have been aware.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims fail, in whole or in part, because the alleged damages, if any, were the result of one or more intervening or superseding causes or caused by the acts and/or omissions of persons other than Meta.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for contributory and vicarious copyright infringement fail because there is no underlying act of direct infringement by any third party, which is a necessary predicate to any claim of secondary liability.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Meta denies downloading or uploading any of Plaintiffs' asserted works. To the extent Plaintiffs seek to hold Meta liable for uploading portions of Plaintiffs' alleged copyrighted works in the context of downloading them via BitTorrent, any resulting alleged reproduction was de minimis and did not result in the creation of an identifiable or usable copy of any copyrighted work.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred under the doctrines of copyright misuse and unclean hands to the extent that Plaintiffs' asserted works quote from, copy, or otherwise incorporate works of others without permission; to the extent the asserted works are derivative of or copy preexisting works, including works undisclosed in Plaintiffs' copyright filings with the U.S. Copyright Office; and to the extent Plaintiffs misstated or overstated their claims of copyright ownership.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs are barred from recovery of damages because of and to the extent of their failure to mitigate their damages, if any.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims fail, in whole or in part, under the equitable doctrines of waiver, estoppel, and acquiescence.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Meta denies exercising any rights provided for under 17 U.S.C. § 106 with respect to any of Plaintiffs' asserted works, and therefore does not currently assert any fair use defense under 17 U.S.C. § 107. Meta reserves the right to assert a fair use defense, and any other applicable defenses, to the extent the facts develop to support them.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Meta hereby demands a trial by jury on all claims, counterclaims, defenses, and issues in this action so triable.
