Open

(If so, set forth procedural status and summarize any court rulings.)

On January 20, 2026, the Court entered a preliminary injunction enjoining the defendants from, among other things, distributing, copying, uploading, or otherwise exploiting or making any use of any copyrighted work owned or controlled by the plaintiffs. On April 14, 2026, the Court granted the plaintiff's motion for default judgment on the plaintiff's claims for direct copyright infringement, breach of contract and violation of the DMCA. There is no appeal currently pending.

Explain in detail the reasons for your position that the newly filed case is related to the earlier filed case.

The newly filed case is related to the earlier filed case because both cases involve claims of copyright infringement and violations of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act concerning allegations that the defendants unlawfully sourced, reproduced, and distributed, copyrighted works on a massive scale through torrent files without authorization from or compensation to the copyright holders by circumventing measures that copyright holders took to protect their work from unauthorized use.
